

TTU HAARBI Retreat

Challenges for health-care associated infectious disease research—strategic development of the HAARBI network

© Silke Peter | UK Tübingen

4 - 5
May 2023

Start: 10:15 am

61440 Parkhotel in Oberursel bei Frankfurt

- New research directions
- Public health connectivity
- Strategy of TTU HAARBI

Further information:

Follow link:
<https://www.dzif.de/de/event/retreat-des-forschungsbereichs-krankenhauskeime-und-antibiotika-resistente-bakterien>

Organisers:

Maria Vehreschild, Jan Rupp,
Silke Peter, Can Imirzalioglu

Questions? Ask Doris Heidmann

0178 3188 528 or doris.heidmann@kgu.de

4. May, 2023

Arrival and Refreshments	9:00
Welcoming remarks	10:15
HAARBI Overview: Where do we stand? Where do we go?	10:30
Session 1, part 1: Pitches (maximum of 15 min per pitch)	11:00
seven pitch presentations describing new research directions and project ideas in an open round of discussion
Lunch Break	12:45
Keynote Lecture Matt Holden: HAARBI infections in public health context	13:45
Session 1, part 2: Pitches (maximum of 15 min per pitch)	14:45
three pitch presentations describing new research directions and project ideas in an open round of discussion
Coffee Break	15:30
Session 2: World Café Workshop "New challenges in sight for HAARBI"	15:45
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Analysis and allocation of pitches in context of established project 2. Up to six workshops: new strategic directions and HAARBI self assessment
Summary and WS planning for next day	17:15
HAARBI – should we rename our TTU for the future?	17:45
Dinner	19:00

5. May, 2023

Keynote Lecture Alexander Westermann: An RNA-centric view on host-pathogen-microbiota interactions	8:30
Workshop Part 2: Roadmap for TTU HAARBI strategic directions – Small group workshops	09:15
Workshop 1
Workshop 2
Workshop 3
Workshop 4
*Exact amount of workshops and topics will depend on the discussion and agreements of the Part 1 on May 4th
Coffee Break	10:45
Presentation and discussion of workshop results	11:00
20 minutes for each workshop
Discussion and Closing Remarks	12.30
Lunch (to go or to eat) and end of retreat	13.00

© DataBase Center for Life Science (DBCLS) | <https://doi.org/10.7875/togopic.2017.39>

Please note:

For organisational reasons the number of participants is limited. Registration is free of charge and HAARBI members may be accepted preferentially.